GDC Batote Organises Parent-Teacher Meet under NMBA

Press Release
27-04-2026

Government Degree College, Batote, organized a Parent-Teacher Meet under the banner of Nasha Mukht Bharat Abhiyan (NMBA), with the objective of creating awareness among parents, guardians, and students about the initiatives “Nasha Mukht Bharat Abhiyan” and “Nasha Mukht Jammu & Kashmir.”

Prior to the commencement of the meeting, a pledge against substance abuse was administered to reaffirm the collective commitment towards a drug-free society. The event began with a welcome address by Dr. Kousar Muzammil, who warmly received the participants and introduced the central theme of the programme. He highlighted various aspects of substance abuse and emphasized the importance of vigilant monitoring of students’ activities both at home and in the college.

Prof. Mushtaq Ahmed, Dean Students’ Welfare, further underscored the crucial role of parents and guardians in curbing the growing menace of substance abuse among youth. He stressed the need for collective responsibility and active involvement in safeguarding the younger generation. Officials from the BDO Office, Batote, were also present and contributed to the significance of the programme.

Towards the conclusion of the meet, the Principal of the college, Dr. Arti Pandoh Gupta, invited parents to her chamber for an interactive session. She shared her valuable insights on drug addiction and emphasized the role of society in addressing and preventing this issue. She also informed the attendees about the continuation of such initiatives in the future.
